2. You are strongly advised to buy travel insurance in case you can’t travel to India. Travel insurance is not included in the India course Program Fee. You must make these arrangements on your own. International health insurance is included in the Program Fee.

3. The Learning Abroad Center will charge your UMN student account for the deposit and the balance of the Program Fee. In January, 2015, the Learning Abroad Center will charge you for the $1,000 deposit. Because the course is attached to Summer Session, you don’t need to pay the balance of the Program Fee until June, 2015, when Summer Session tuition is due.

4. If you cancel the course for any reason, you must pay the non-refundable $1,000 deposit AND your portion of any non-recoverable costs. Non-recoverable costs include but are not limited to housing, meals, round-trip airfare, ground transportation, classes, excursions, etc.
