The study abroad program changed every aspect of my life and prepared me for success as a global professional.

Learning about other countries’ healthcare systems has helped to make me an even better provider.

Skills Developed Abroad

1. Interpersonal and communication abilities
2. Appreciation of and interaction with individuals different than yourself
3. Increased maturity and personal development

Top 5 Skills EMPLOYERS SEEK

1. Function as a team member
2. Effective interpersonal communication
3. Learn new ideas quickly
4. Identify, define, and solve problems
5. Sensitivity and awareness to other people and cultures

67% believe study abroad positively affected their long-term career prospects

64% acquired skill sets that influenced their career path

53% said it positively impacted their ability to land a first job

64% believe study abroad positively affected their long-term career prospects

53% said it positively impacted their ability to land a first job

What students are saying...