COURSE DESCRIPTION

French for beginning intermediate students based on the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages. This course takes place at the IEFE (Institute for Foreign Students of French) and at our program center in Montpellier. In this course, you will build on the speaking, writing, listening, and reading skills you acquired in the previous levels and also increase your knowledge and cultural awareness of Francophone culture. Reading, writing, and culture will be the focal points. Topics may include: cultural identity, food, family, education, work, nationality, and diversity.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

The following topics and skill areas will be explored in greater detail over the course of the semester.

Grammar:

- Conjugations: the indicative, the conditional, subjunctive, imperative, gerundive.
- Determiners: possessive, demonstrative, and indefinite adjectives.
- Adjectives: placement/word order, comparatives, and superlatives
- Connectors (space and time)
- Compound sentences
- Pronouns: personal, relative, interrogative, possessive, and demonstrative

Lexical skills:

- In-depth everyday vocabulary/professions/the working world/personal and professional space

Socio-cultural topics:

- Furthering the exploration of cultural and social aspects relating to the daily life and the heritage of France and its inhabitants.

METHODOLOGY

The course focuses on class discussions with an emphasis on speaking, listening, reading and writing.

ATTENDANCE POLICY

Students are expected to be on time and attend all classes while abroad. Many instructors assess both attendance and participation when assigning a final course grade. Attendance alone does not guarantee a positive participation grade; the student should be prepared for class and engage in class discussion. See the onsite syllabus for specific class requirements.

UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

Academic integrity is essential to a positive teaching and learning environment. All students enrolled in University courses are expected to complete coursework responsibilities with fairness and honesty. Failure to do so by seeking unfair advantage over others or misrepresenting someone else's work as your own can result in disciplinary action. The University Student Conduct Code defines scholastic dishonesty as follows:

SCHOLASTIC DISHONESTY:

Scholastic dishonesty means plagiarizing; cheating on assignments or examinations; engaging in unauthorized collaboration on academic work; taking, acquiring, or using test materials without faculty permission; submitting false or incomplete records of academic achievement; acting alone or in cooperation with another to falsify records or to obtain dishonestly grades, honors, awards, or professional endorsement; altering forging, or misusing a University academic record; or fabricating or falsifying data, research procedures, or data analysis.

Within this course, a student responsible for scholastic dishonesty can be assigned a penalty up to and including an “F” or “N” for the course. If you have any questions regarding the expectations for a specific assignment or exam, ask.

STUDENT CONDUCT:

The University of Minnesota has specific policies concerning student conduct. This information can be found on the Learning Abroad Center website.
