

August & Winter Break Intensive French in Senegal

COURSE DESIGNATOR: FRENCH 1004, 3015, 3016

LANGUAGE OF INSTRUCTION: French

NUMBER OF CREDITS: 4 Credits

CONTACT HOURS: 60 hours

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course is designed for students who have already taken beginning level courses of French and now desire to deepen their knowledge of the language while living in a French speaking country, Senegal, through language instruction and interaction with native speakers. It consists of language exposure in class and outside the class. The core components of language learning, that is, listening, speaking, reading and writing will be covered. All the materials will be context-based as students are learning the language in Senegal. Language and culture are therefore intertwined in this course.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

This course aims at introducing students to Senegalese society and culture through French language instruction. Students will be exposed to the French language through listening, speaking, reading and writing.

METHODOLOGY

This course combines common course sessions with specialized sections for each level of linguistic ability.

ATTENDANCE POLICY

Students are expected to be on time and attend all classes while abroad. Many instructors assess both attendance and participation when assigning a final course grade. Attendance alone does not guarantee a positive participation grade; the student should be prepared for class and engage in class discussion. See the onsite syllabus for specific class requirements.

UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

Academic integrity is essential to a positive teaching and learning environment. All students enrolled in University courses are expected to complete coursework responsibilities with fairness and honesty. Failure to do so by seeking unfair advantage over others or misrepresenting someone else's work as your own can result in disciplinary action. The University Student Conduct Code defines scholastic dishonesty as follows:

SCHOLASTIC DISHONESTY:

Scholastic dishonesty means plagiarizing; cheating on assignments or examinations; engaging in unauthorized collaboration on academic work; taking, acquiring, or using test materials without faculty permission; submitting false or incomplete records of academic achievement; acting alone or in cooperation with another to falsify records or to obtain dishonestly grades, honors, awards, or professional endorsement; altering forging, or misusing a University academic record; or fabricating or falsifying data, research procedures, or data analysis.

Within this course, a student responsible for scholastic dishonesty can be assigned a penalty up to and including an “F” or “N” for the course. If you have any questions regarding the expectations for a specific assignment or exam, ask.

STUDENT CONDUCT:

The University of Minnesota has specific policies concerning student conduct. This information can be found on the Learning Abroad Center website.
