

DUBLIN SAMPLE INTERNSHIP LIST

EXAMPLES OF PAST PLACEMENTS

Please note that the following sites are a brief cross-section of current CAPA internship host sites and should not be considered as a guaranteed location for your placement. All internship & service learning placements will be dependent upon each individual applicant's application documents, prior experiences, demonstrated skills and their aspirations and goals.

Fitzsimons, Howick &amp; McEvoy	FHM are a firm of Chartered Certified Accountants and Registered Auditors serving a diverse client base in North Wexford, Wicklow and South Dublin from our offices in Bray and Gorey. The practice is now one of the most well known practices operating in the area. Partners Justin Fitzsimons and Dave Howick are proud of the practice they have built up and take considerable pride in the knowledge that most of their new business comes from client referrals which is an endorsement of the quality of service the practice provides.
Rothco Advertising	Rothco Advertising is a busy multi award winning international advertising agency dealing with high profile clients from around the world.
The Aisling Project	The Aisling project is inspired by a vision of love, care, and support. It is an after-school intervention project for children at risk which aims to provide purposeful activity in a caring and secure environment in an attempt to meet their physical, emotional, and developmental needs. A guiding principle of the project is to enable the children to receive both recognition and acceptance. The project aims to offer children a place where they can be themselves and acquire the skills they need to cope with the challenges and difficulties of life without resorting to drug abuse, violence, and crime.
Create	Create is Ireland's national development agency for Collaborative Arts. Create came into existence in 1983 and since then has championed, nurtured and supported the work of artists in collaboration with a range of community and social contexts. Collaborative Arts has a broad spectrum of definition and interpretation, but central to it is the notion of artists informing their practice through who they collaborate with. Create supports artists across all art forms who work collaboratively with communities. Create promotes the making of exceptional art, in partnership with communities of all kinds - be they pigeon fanciers; a chess club; working fishermen, farmers, asylum seekers or a neighborhood organization. Create routinely partners with different organizations to provoke discussion and encourage new ways of thinking about making art.

ASL Airlines	ASL Airlines are an established aviation group offering an unrivaled array of aviation services to their customers worldwide. From passenger and cargo airline operations to aircraft leasing, maintenance and parts support, the breadth of services provided by ASL Aviation Group companies on every continent enables them to offer a truly unique service.
Clarus Press	Clarus Press Ltd. are a legal publishing company. They publish, primarily, titles for the Irish market including the student and practitioner markets. Clarus Press also publishes 'law lite' titles for the general public. In addition to that Clarus have some strong academic titles which have a broader international market including a leading peer reviewed journal.
Extreme Ireland	Extreme Ireland is a busy tourist agency in the heart of Dublin specializing in hiking tours led by Irish guides with a sense of adventure.
Rose Kervick Consultancy	Rose Kervick Consultancy is a strategic business consultancy specializing in the set up and launch of new businesses and the acceleration in growth of scale up businesses.
The Little Museum of Dublin	This award-winning museum tells the story of the Irish capital. Their collection was created by public donation, entry to the museum is by guided tour. Described as 'Dublin's best museum experience' by The Irish Times, The Little Museum is the number one museum in Ireland on TripAdvisor. A brilliant new addition to the cultural map of Ireland, their famous guided tours reveal the history of a city that has undergone remarkable changes in the last 100 years, from the visit of Queen Victoria to the global success of U2.

Friends of the Elderly	Friends of the Elderly is a volunteer based Irish charity that aims to alleviate social isolation and loneliness amongst older people in Ireland through friendship.
Dress for Success	Dress for Success Dublin promotes the economic independence of women by providing professional clothing, career development tools and a support network. Our vision is that women in Dublin are empowered to secure and maintain meaningful and sustainable employment and to reach their full potential.
Accountant Online	Accountant Online is a firm of chartered accountants serving Ireland and the UK. They specialize in new business startups, taking care of tax and registration compliance, software and banking advice for new business
TWCDI	Doodle Den places an emphasis on developing literacy skills through games and fun activities in an after-school setting. Parental involvement is a key element with parents gaining skills to support their children's literacy needs as well as having the opportunity to engage in a range of activities with their children throughout the year. The Evaluation Report of Doodle Den found that the service improved word recognition, sentence structure, and word choice among the children who took part. It also led to improved concentration, reduced problem behaviors in school, an increase in family library activity and an increase in the child's reading at home. Doodle Den is currently being delivered to groups of children and parents around Ireland.
Zero-G	Zero-G is a brand strategy and design agency based in Dublin, Ireland. They partner with organizations and enterprises from around the world to help them change, connect, innovate and grow. Zero-G describe themselves as optimists who believe there is always the possibility of making things better.

PERSONAL PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Through their internship and extra-curricular activities, we work to help students develop the following skills:

1. Networking: The ability to intentionally and purposefully connect and interact with others in order to develop professional and social relationships.
2. Communications: The ability to receive, interpret and articulate information and ideas effectively.
3. Remote Collaboration: The ability to utilise IT resources to connect virtually with others and achieve collective goals and objectives.
4. Global Perspective: To develop skills required to live and work in an interdependent world through forming an understanding of connections between one's own life and those of people across the globe.
5. Cultural Awareness: To develop an understanding of oneself, others and to embrace and appreciate diverse and complex perspectives, values and beliefs.
6. Organisation, Time Managements and Prioritisation Skills: The ability to achieve identified outcomes by using your time, energy and resources in an effective and productive manner.
7. Problem Solving: The ability to find solutions to difficult or complex issues and to manage moments of uncertainty or ambiguity.
8. Adaptable: The ability to adjust oneself readily to different conditions and environments.
9. Goal Setting: The ability to identify, form and implement actions that will guide you towards predetermined aims and objectives.
10. Career Based or Vocational Skills: The development of specific knowledge or abilities related to an occupation.